Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Living in Norwich, England in the 14th and early 15th century, Dame Julian of Norwich spent much of her life as an anchoress, that is, as a vowed religious living by herself in a small room attached to a parish church. Beyond this, little is actually known about Dame Julian, as she was called. What is known about her, and what makes her an inspiration for so many ordinary Christians today is her remarkable book, Revelations of Divine Love, or, as she called them, Showings. The Revelations are a description of a series of visions which opened Julian to the depths of God's unconditioned love for us in Jesus Christ. They are noted for their spiritual depth and theological courage, for their literary elegance and the spirit of joy and humility that permeates them. Julian was one of a number of spiritual writers of her time, known now as the Fourteenth Century English Mystics. Her book is the first book known to have been written by a woman in English. After being nearly forgotten for 600 years, Julian's insights and gentle wisdom have now made her justly famous. In a medieval church which emphasized God's condemning wrath, Julian wrote, There is no wrath in God. It is the most impossible thing that can be that God would be angry, for wrath and friendship are two opposites. Just as striking and as relevant to the 21st century is Julian's perception of the feminine element in God. As truly as God is our Father, Julian wrote, so truly God is our Mother. The Episcopal Church celebrates her feast every 8th of May. The Roman Catholic Church honors...
