Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Speech of Waddy Thompson, of South Carolina: In the House of Representatives of the United States, Being in Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union It is not my purpose, sir, to make a speech, but to throw together some random recollections of the last and present administrations. It may not be wholly unprofitable, especially, if it shall suggest to some of my former political friends to look well to the new associations which they are about to form. Brief it probably will, desultory it must be. My colleague (Mr. Pickens) has said that any party which acts upon the principles set forth in the report of the Committee of Ways and Means shall have his support. I understand him by this to mean, and only to mean, that he will support the measures which may be proposed for carrying out these principles, and not as pledging himself to support the re-election of those now in power. I hope that in so understanding my colleague I am not mistaken. I am sure I am not. Thus understood, I entirely agree with him. I have always thus acted whenever the administration has, by accident, staggered on a proper measure. I have voted for it. I shall continue to do so. More than this my colleague could not have intended. He had too often, and too fiercely, denounced those in power. He had uttered too many eloquent and burning anathemas against them as not only ignorant and incompetent, but as corrupt and profligate, to make it possible for him to unite with them without the amplest recantation - if not as an act of justice...
