IRMA GRESE: A TRUE ACCOUNT OF THE HOLOCAUST'S DEADLIEST WOMAN (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. World War 2, in particular the Holocaust, was responsible for bringing to light some of the most horrifying and unbelievable individuals, none more so than Irma Grese, a female S.S guard. Irma was initially stationed at Auschwitz and became one of the most ferocious and formidable women of her time, many would say of all time! This short read is an account of Irma's life and focuses on the facts around Irma Grese only, based on information provided by the people that knew her best and those that were unlucky enough to have come into contact with her and survived. Who was Irma Grese? Learn about this ruthless young lady, also known as the beautiful beast. An attractive woman with a propensity to kill in unusually high proportions. Discover Irma's surprising background and childhood compared to the mindset that she developed and understand how the circumstances in which she found herself would ultimately lead to the actions that made her so fearsome. It is well known that Irma was a member of the German SS guard and worked alongside other female guards, however here we focus only on Irma, since she was by far the most formidable. Read and discover: - How Irma lived in her younger years. - Who her influencers were. - Her love interests. - Stories of the punishments she inflicted. - Her criteria for selecting victims. - How her brutality was ended and her subsequent demise. - Her legacy. and more. Irma Grese was one of the most evil women to have lived Aushwitz in World War 2 was a haven in which Irma's bias for murder could be nurtured and allowed...
