

Alphabetapocalypse

By Sam Sobelman

Samuel Sobelman. Paperback. Condition: New. 290 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Petyr Dmitriev is a renegade special agent, playing a dangerous game. In Anonymous, cutthroat villains and megalomaniac scientists compete to see who can inspire the most chaos, all for the chance to win a seat of power. Facing a dire situation, Petyr decides to leave the game. However, his escape only leads him into a more dangerous pursuit. The Figments, shadowy organizers behind Anonymous, are preparing a nightmare army to invade the planet and raze it to the ground. They will stop at nothing to crush whole universe into a fine powder. They wait only for their master Midas to arrive, so he may lead them truly and guide them to entropic ecstasy. With just a tiny bit more chaos in the world, his arrival will be unstoppable. The only person standing between the universe and sweet, heat death is Petyr, a troubled man whose innate power is greater than he could have possibly imagined.
