Often their neighbours are invited and so quite a small congregation is assembled. The work in this out-station is growing amazingly, and now (Igor) the Missionary physician has an ever-increasing number of patients awaiting her at the Dispensary and many more eager requests to visit the higher caste women in their own homes. Kushtia, a small town in the N.E. of the Nuddea district, has recently become another permanent outstation and point of Medical Mission interest. A Dispensary was opened in 1899, and Mrs. Peters, a certificated nurse and Bible woman, has been successfully prosecuting very real Medical Mission work in the homes of the people. Miss C. P. Marks, who has been in charge of the Dispensary for a time, speaks of the gratitude of the women for relief. Some fall down on the ground to touch our feet with their foreheads,...
