Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Dissolution of the Union: And Its Inevitable Results, Unless National Prayers Are Offered Up to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and Eminent Divines Again Invoke the Aid of Heaven to Preserve the Union Unimpaired to the Latest Posterity In giving myself an introduction to the public for the first time, I have not many apologies to make, as my position speaks for itself, when it becomes well known to the American people, that I have not the honor of being a collegian or professor of practical philosophy. Therefore, I deem it expedient to say as little as possible in praise of myself or literary productions. Let public mind give an unprejudiced verdict, whether I shall have the freedom of this entire confederacy in introducing my work in this enlightened age of progress, and I will abide the decision of my countrymen, where it does not come in direct antagonism to the obligations that I am under to the Supreme Ruler of nations. The problem is about being solved, to prove to the civilized world whether man is capable of self-government, or national jurisprudence, in its energetic measures, is competent to triumph amid political factions; and whether our national law-givers in their collected wisdom, will meet the impending crisis with invincible prowess, and put down disunion forever, and its coadjutors as traitors to their country, branded in eternal infamy.
