Small town sheriff Jasper Davis Crow has an arm forged of Texas Army-issued black metal, chews snuff manufactured from real tobacco extract, and wields a six shooter made before neural implants were even a thing. In an age when Texan independence, neglect, and technology have ushered in a new age of lawlessness, J.D. holds strong the line of justice in the town of Dead Oak. Longhorns trample a rancher in what appears to be a brutal accident. The new deputy from Austin is convinced that it s murder and J.D. is inclined to agree when their investigation uncovers a bizarre conspiracy. With a megastorm brewing and a mysterious stranger tracking their every move, they need to work fast before time runs out and the storm wipes everything clean. Can J.D. unravel the conspiracy? Will he be able to bring a sense of closure to the rancher s wife and kids? Will there be Justice in an Age of Metal and Men?.
